

Tanawin Operating Expenses

A mobile expense tracker for a bed-and-breakfast.

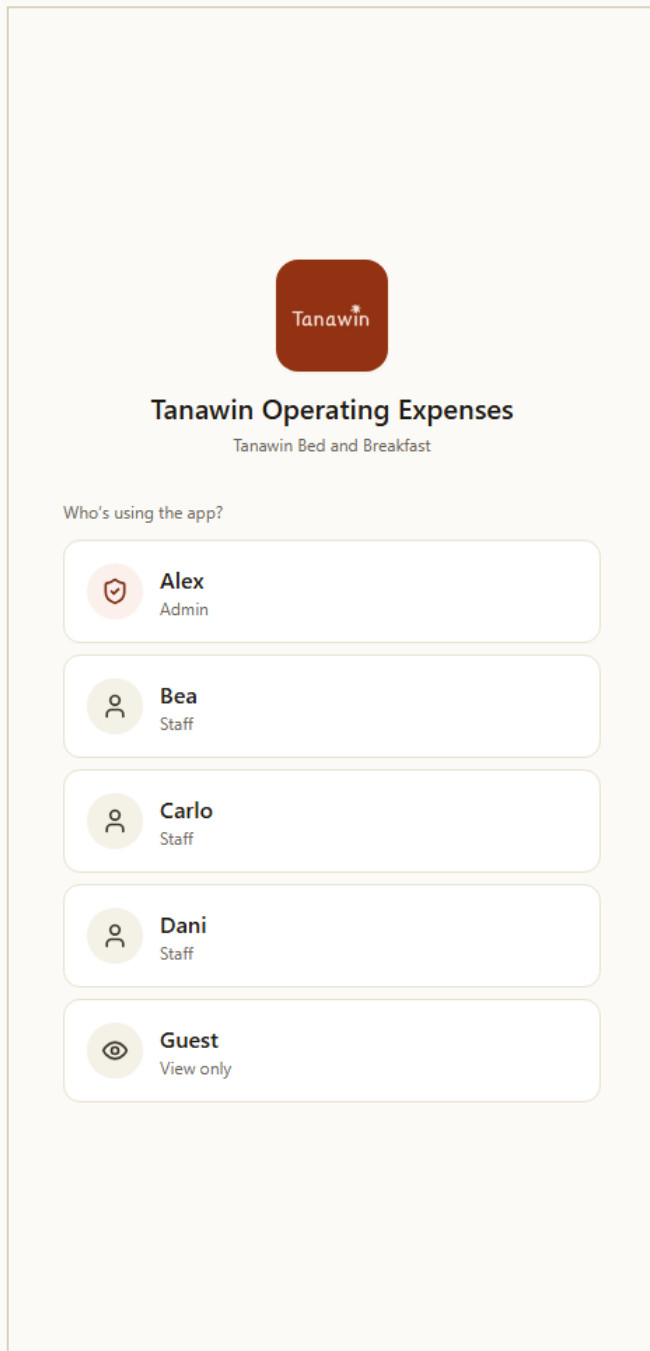

Staff log market runs and bills from their phones. The owner reviews, approves petty-cash top-ups, reconciles receipts, and hands clean books to the accountant.

- Multi-item receipts
- Petty-cash approvals
- Role-based access
- Auto-flagging & review
- Excel + receipts export
- Installs to home screen

All names, vendors, amounts, and receipts shown are fictional demo data.

Tap a chart to drill in. Filter by month(s) and tag with checkboxes; see spend by staff and funding source, trends, and plain-language recommendations.

Expense ledger

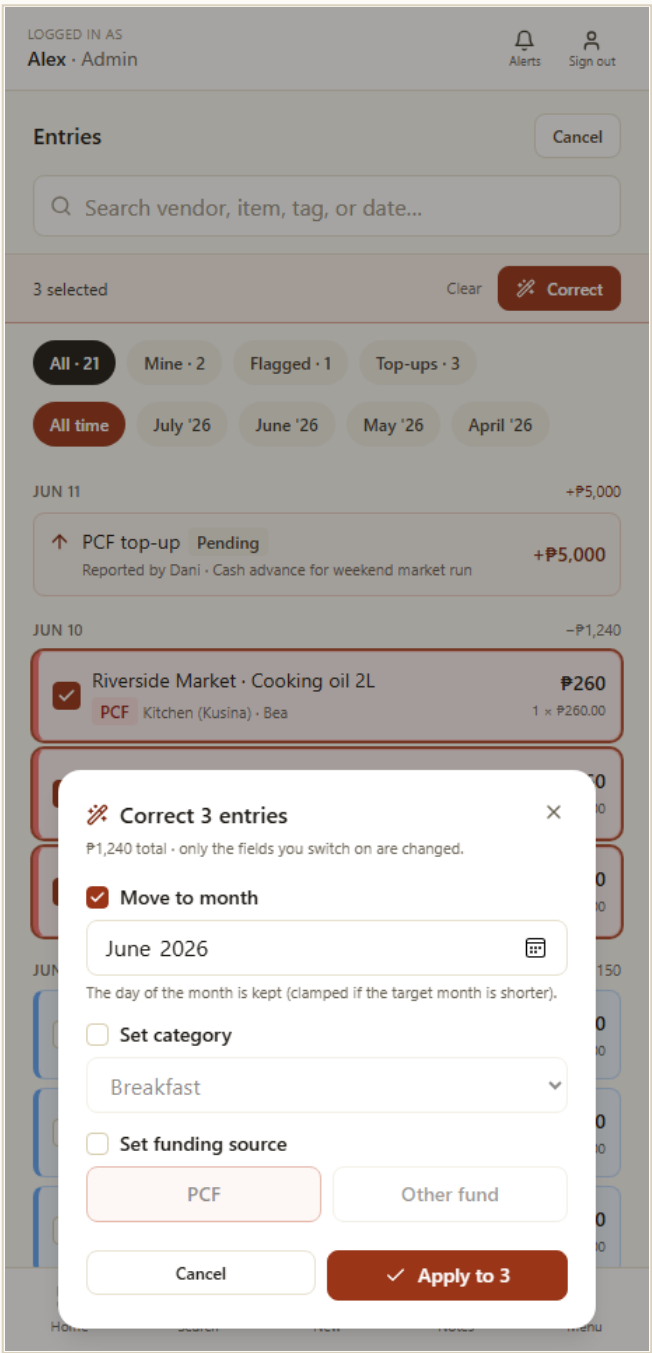

Every expense and top-up, colour-coded by funding source (petty cash vs. other), searchable and filterable by month.

Excel export

Export to Excel by month, several months, or a whole year. The workbook lands clean: sorted by date, money formatted, internal IDs dropped.

Bulk corrections

Select several entries and fix them in one go — move them to the right month, or set the category or funding source across the whole selection.

☐ Personal purchase

Stays on the receipt, but this amount isn't deducted from the petty cash balance.

☒ Spread across months

For costs paid once but valid over a period — divides ₱620 into monthly parts so each month's reports carry its share.
